Diageo Courtyard

Plainfield, Illinois

Employees go outside.

Diageo, a leading business in premium beverages was expanding manufacturing facilities in Plainfield, Illinois. As part of the project, they wanted to create an outdoor space which allows for employee use of the courtyard. Uses include lunch, recreation, and employee celebrations. The new courtyard is a success and includes the following:

- Covered Seating Area- Permanent Pavilion
- Paved areas conducive to meeting
- Recreational amenities
- Site Access via the building and a new drive
- New landscape plantings w/ minimal shrubs at building walls
- Ambient lighting of the pavilion and pathways.
- Colors and textures that compliment the building
